India Maharani Visits Beach At Riviera Club

Distinguished picnickers on Torrance Beach Sunday afternoon were the Maharani of Baroda and her entourage from India.

The Maharani is the young and beautiful wife of one of the world's richest princely rulers who has spent the past several weeks visiting beauty spots around Los Angeles.

The distinguished visitors were guests of Jesse Laskey, Jr., and Fredric Frank, writers for Paramount Studios and members of the Hollywood Riviera Beach club where the picnic was held.

Others in the picnicking group were Jesse Laskey, Sr., pioneer in the motion picture industry, Dr. Chandrachud, personal physician and advisor of the Maharani's party, the Maharani's two-year-old son, Rao, and his nurse, Miss Millicent Wood, and Mr. and Mrs. William Laskey.

For the occasion the Maharani wore casual American clothes—looked very little different from the other Sunday afternoon feminine guests of the club. Relaxing under a colorful umbrella, enjoying the picturesque beauty of the beach, she expressed to observers that this part of the beach (Torrance) was one of the most attractive spots she had seen in California.

The Maharani's interest in coming to America is to study American customs and to learn anything that will help with the progress of her own people.

A friendship that makes the least noise is very often the most useful, for which reason I should prefer a prudent friend to a zealous one.—Addison.
